In the south of Germany there lives a wonderful grandmother Gertrude, her entire life she collects and studies healing herbs and plants, explores their useful properties and actions, creates unique home remedies for skin and hair care, which help to preserve health and beauty. Using her knowledge and years of experience we have created a new line of cosmetics based on natural herbs and plants – “Grandmother Gertrude’s Recipes”.

All products of the line have German environmental certificate BDIH and meet its high standards:

- Raw materials for production must grow in special biological farms or in places of uncontaminated wildlife
- Environmentally friendly production processes
- Environmentally friendly packaging
- GMOs, dyes, synthetic fragrances and petrochemicals use is strictly prohibited
